DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 9-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Suaning et al USPN 7,003,355.

Suaning is interpreted as having a receiver (26) and converter 42 (6 in the provisional application) place outside the patient's eye. Electrode array is placed outside the sclera and thus outside the choroid with inner electrode 60 positioned in the eye. The operation of the device as well as the piercing step would be inherent since no other way of performing these tasks to place the electrode within the eye can be envisioned by the examiner. The effective date for the examiner interpretation of the Suaning et al patent is that of the provisional application.

Claims 9-10, 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by WO/56393. Since the choroid is not an enclosed piece of tissue "outside the choroid" can be considered to be outside the sclera or inside the vitreous space. The examiner considers figure 3b to show all the limitations with electrode array "outside the choroid" but inside the eye, receiver 322 and converter 320 are outside the eye of the patient. Return electrodes would also be on the electrode array.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Suaning et al. USPN 7,003,355 in view of WO/56393. Applicant differs from Suaning et al in reciting that the receiver is placed in the patient's head as well as the converter for receiving signals from a photographic camera member. WO/56393 teaches such an arrangement in figure 3b. To have positioned the receiver and converter of Suaning

Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Suaning et al USPN 7,003,355 or WO/56393 in further view of Tassicker USPN 2760483 or

Art Unit: 3766

Chow et al USPN 6427087. To have placed the electrode array either between the choroid and the sclera or choroid and retina through a sclera flap would have been obvious in view of Chow et al or Tassicker.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 9-12 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
